G. L. School Hires Two Teachers

The Grass Lake School Board authorized final payment of bills for the new addition to Ames Brothers, general contractor, and Paul Avery, plumbing, at the last regular meeting. Final payment of $600 to the architect Hal Chalmers, will be made when final acceptance of the building is made by the board.

The board signed two contracts for new teachers for the coming school year. Earl Brumbaugh was hired to teach 7th and 8th grade math, science, and language arts, and Mrs. Carolyn Anderson was hired to teach music for one and one-half days per week.

Mr. Brumbaugh is a graduate of Culver Stockton College, Canton, Missouri, and a resident of Antioch. Mrs. Anderson is a graduate of Augustana College at Rock Island, Ill. Mr. Schockmel stated that Mrs. Anderson comes highly recommended and will be a great asset to the educational program. Three teachers are still needed, Superintendent Schockmel said.

The board also acted to retain Mr. Adams as auditor for the current year.

Mr. Schockmel read a letter from the state office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction commending the board for its efforts to improve the educational program. The letter was the result of a visit to the school by Assistant Regional Director Morris Noonan, Jr., and Assistant County Superintendent James Flood.

Tree & Flag Pole Are Gifts of Senior Class

The graduating class of 1966 at Antioch Township High School presented two gifts to the school as they prepared to leave—a mountain ash tree and a flag pole.

The class gifts were presented to Superintendent Albert Dittman formally by Senior President Tom Blackman as the tree was planted on the west edge of the athletic field. The 42-foot flag pole will be installed at the north end of the athletic field.

Blackman remarked that the class could check the growth of "their" tree as they returned for future reunions. Dittman thanked the students and remarked that they would be enduring gifts of great value.

Semi-Finals of It's Academic

Antioch, Joliet East and West Leyden high schools compete for a spot in the season's finals on a semi-final match on "It's Academic" Saturday, June 4, at 6 p.m. on WMAQ-TV.

The winner of the June 4 semi-final match will go into the championship playoff the following week meeting New Trier of Winnetka and Lake Zurich high school for the season's title.

Antioch will be represented by Jeannie Stephens, David Chandler and Roger Kovachny.

Dr. William Webb, Director of Guidance, Waukegan High School, will be the June 4 halftime guest. Dr. Webb will be interviewed by Ed Grennan, host, and quizmaster on the weekly "It's Academic" colorcasts.

Thieves Busy On Long Weekend

The theft of an undetermined amount of drugs, narcotics and cash from the Antioch Clinic was reported Sunday night, May 29.

Dr. Allan Thain discovered the break-in Sunday night and called Antioch Police. The clinic had been closed since Saturday night, so the time of the robbery was not known.

Sergeant Harold Mason and Chief Jack Heick said the back door had been broken open.

Burglary at Quaker

Theft from Quaker Industries was discovered Tuesday a.m. by the shipping department foreman, Walter Anderson. A box car on a siding near the plant had been broken into and five cartons of tray tables taken. The plant had been closed since Friday night for the long Memorial Day weekend, so the time of the theft could not be fixed in this case, either.

137 Graduate From Central

Graduation exercises for 137 students at Salem Central High School will be held Friday, June 3 at 8:15 p.m. June Schmidt is valedictorian of the class and Eldonna Schulz is Salutatorian.

The invocation and benediction will be given by the Rev. Carol W. Bloodow of the Bristol Methodist Church. The Commencement speaker is Dr. Burton Drettlow, professor of Agricultural and Extension Education at the University of Wisconsin at Madison.

Police Report Quiet Weekend

Despite the hundreds of vacationing weekenders that crowded Antioch streets, the village enjoyed an accident-free weekend, Police Chief Jack Heick said.

Not even fender-benders marred the Memorial Day weekend. Police made one arrest for drunken driving, but no accident had occurred.

Lake County had no fatalities over the three-day vacation period, though there were several accidents. Across the nation, more than 500 died in highway traffic.

Two Boys Win Week In Camp

Two Antioch boys will spend a week in summer camp early in July, thanks to the Antioch Police Department, the Policemen's Benevolent Association and Antioch merchants who bought ads from them.

The two lucky boys are Patrick Russ, 8 years old, and in the second grade at Oakland School, and Rodney Schaefer, a 7th grader at St. Peter's School.

The two boys were selected because of the essays they turned in to the police department telling why they wanted to go to camp. A sincere desire to take the trip counted most heavily in selecting the winner.

Patrick is one of twelve children. He said he would like to go because he has seven sisters and would like to get away from them for a while.

Rodney is the son of Louis Schaefer. He has no mother, and wrote a two-page essay explaining that he likes to swim and doesn't get much outdoor activity.

Parents of the boys were notified and consented to their sons taking the trip. The boys will leave the 4th of July, and will be driven to Camp Rotary in Rockford by Antioch police. The Camp is owned by the Rockford Rotary Club. The boys will stay in cabins, and will be able to choose from a varied program supervised by adults. Some of the activities listed are crafts, swimming, hiking, canoeing, boating, Frontier camps (one day of camping out) and evening sings around a campfire.

The Antioch Police Department will pick the boys up and bring them home on July 9. They will also provide them with spending money.

In case either of the boys is unable to go, an alternate has been chosen. He is Ricky Black, an Antioch Grade School student.

Commencement At Antioch High For 187

A graduating class of 187 students will receive diplomas in commencement exercises at the Antioch High School athletic field at 8 p.m. Thursday, June 9.

In case of inclement weather, the graduation ceremonies will be held in the boys' gym. This is a yearly dilemma for high school officials. The boys gym is not large enough to accommodate the crowd comfortably. Rain, or the threat of it, calls for a decision early in the day so that the site of the exercises can be definitely set.

"Last year," Superintendent Albert Dittman said, "we called P. J. Hoff for a last-minute forecast. He said that there would be showers all around, but no rain in Antioch. He was right. So we are certainly going to call him again this year."

Baccalaureate exercises for the 51st class to graduate from Antioch High will be held Sunday, June 5, at the High School auditorium. The Baccalaureate address will be given by the Rev. L. H. Messersmith, who will speak to the students on "Be Sure It's the Truth."

The baccalaureate program will start with the procession by David Bushnell, pianist. The invocation will be given by the Rev. Donald M. Cobb of the Antioch Methodist Church, followed by a number by the High School Senior Choir under the direction of Ralph Brooke.

The speaker will be introduced by Assistant Superintendent Warren Polley. After Rev. Messersmith's address, Superintendent Albert Dittman will address the students, followed by the Benediction by the Rev. Cobb, and the recessional.

At Commencement exercises Thursday night, juniors Glenna Burns and Fred Gras will be escorts for the graduating class. The Processional will be played by the High School Band under the direction of Joseph Rush. The invocation will be given by the Rev. David Lynch.

The Senior Choir will sing Halls of Ivy and The Road Not Taken. The Valedictorian and Salutatorian awards will be presented by Roger Prossie, secretary of the Board of Education.

EDUCATOR TO SPEAK

Assistant Superintendent Warren Polley will introduce the Commencement speaker, Guy E. Cornwell, Associate Director of the Illinois Association of School Boards. The subject of his address will be "Focus on Excellence."

Mr. Cornwell has a broad and varied background of public school experience. He was born and reared on a farm in Macon County, Illinois, attended a rural school, was graduated from Maroa High School, earned a bachelor's degree at Eastern Ill. University, a Masters degree in school administration at the U. of Illinois, and has done additional graduate work at Teachers College at Columbia University.

Following two years as a one-room school teacher and two years teaching industrial arts in the Alton, Ill., high school, Cornwell began 38 years in Taylorville, Ill., as a junior high school principal, elementary superintendent and superintendent of the Community Unit School District, then resigned to become First Assistant to George T. Wilkins, superintendent of Public Instruction in 1959.

In 1964 he began his work with the Illinois Association of School Boards. He has been active in the I.E.A. and N.E.A. and is past president of the Illinois Association of School Administrators, the Illinois Schoolmasters' Club and the Illinois Council on Educational Administration.

Diplomas will be presented, followed by the Presentation of Colors by the Girls' Athletic Association, Color Guard The ceremonies will close with the National Anthem by the High School Band.

23 Graduate At Grass Lake

Graduation exercises will be held June 8, at 8:00 p.m. at the Grass Lake School.

The Rev. Wilton Anderson will give the invocation and benediction and Jess Portes will be guest speaker. Robert Hart, school board president, will give out the diplomas to the following members of the class of 1966:

James Albright, Gerald Anderson, Timothy August, Mary Ann Bicanie, Cynthia Blake, Kathleen Bye, Keith Church, Denise Fowles, Kenneth Dean, Candy Gilmore, Pamela Guardi, Patricia Holimon, James Holmes, Rita Malecki, Pamela Martz, Linda Pennell, Lynn Powell, Carol Seymour, James Seymour, Richard Steiskal, Keith Tarkowski, Deborah Zale, and Nancy Zoll.

Superintendent John Schockmel will introduce the top five students from the class and honor other students for their fine efforts in the area of school service.

School To Vote On Tax Increase

Voters from the Grass Lake School District 36 will vote Saturday, June 4, on an increase of 21c in the educational tax rate. If approved, the educational tax rate will go up from 83c to $1.04.

Robert Hart, School Board president, said, "The district will have a $30,000 deficit by July 1 in the educational fund. We would like to make several additions to our program but with a deficit of this amount, the budget for the 1966-67 school year will have to be cut down in order to balance. There is no question that the tax rate increase is needed in order to maintain our present educational program."

The amount of educational taxes extendible under the maximum rate now in force is $61,824.64. The amount of educational taxes extendible under the proposed increased rate would be $77,489.57, according to Superintendent John Schockmel.

With a home assessed at $8,000, the 21c increase would cost the home owner $18.80.

The district is running a kindergarten program for the first time this year and is being run on deficit budgeting. Next year, the board hopes to improve the music program by adding a part-time music teacher.

"These programs are needed by our district," President Hart said, "and must be maintained in order to keep up a good program."

Voting will be from noon to 7 p.m. at Grass Lake School this Saturday, June 4.

VFW Parade & Services On Memorial Day

The VFW Parade and Memorial services were well attended. Starting from Antioch High School at 10:30 a.m., the parade went north down Main St., then over to the monument on Broadway for the Memorial services. Edward Bantz of Waukegan was the guest speaker. A wreath was placed on the monument by Gold Star mothers Mrs. Myra Randall and Mrs. Laura Swanson.

The Antioch High School and Grade School Bands participated in the parade, also the VFW Auxiliary, the American Legion and Auxiliary, Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops and the Rescue Squad, Fire Department and Police Department. More Savings Bonds Sold In County Lake County residents purchased a total of $469,404 in Series E and H U.S. savings bonds in April, according to Philip L. Speidel, general county chairman of the savings bonds committee.

Sales in the state of Illinois were $31,618,293. This is an increase of 7.6% over sales of last April. Illinois purchases in the first four months of this year reached 36.1% of the annual quota.

Claims Couple Stole His Money

Paul Beranek, 42, of Rt. 3, Box 70, Antioch, claimed he was "rolled" and robbed of $700 in Fox Lake Sunday.

Beranek said he met Josephine Lucas of Channel Lake and Orville John, Ingleside, in Paradise Park, a picnic grounds and tavern. Miss Lucas was picked up by police Sunday afternoon. Police Chief Lou Voeck, of Fox Lake, said about $280 was found in her clothing by a police matron.

Construction Work Starts As Strike of Operators Ends

The 51-day strike of heavy equipment operators in Lake County ended Monday. The strike has held up work on roads, water and sewer projects, and various other construction.

The strike of Local 150, International Union of Operating Engineers, involved disputes over both wages and fringe benefits. The contract finally accepted by the union calls for wage increases of $1.40 an hour plus fringe benefits. The new contract is retroactive to January 1 and expires April 30, 1970.

The strike affected 12 northeastern Illinois counties, including Cook, Lake and DuPage counties.

Bob Schenk and Tyrone Walls. Awards queens are Sally Minch, Glenna Burns, Pat Dibble, Bonnie Bell and Lois Herman. The Sequoits won their 2nd-straight track title Saturday as they hosted the conference meet.

Class Gifts

Each year, the graduating class of Antioch High School, like other schools, presents a gift to the school. It's a nice custom, that usually receives little publicity and is often rather lost in the shuffle of the various excitements that surround graduation and the end of the school year.

The school has profited a good deal by this custom. It invariably receives something that is a real addition to the school, at no cost to the taxpayer.

The students profit from the gift they bestow, too. It's probably their first real step in supporting their community. They see something that is needed, and fill that need by their own efforts.

It's their first step, perhaps, in repaying their community and their country for the education they've received, for twelve years use of the public, tax-supported facilities that are maintained to help them get a good start on a happy, useful life.

The gifts are something the members of the class can point to with pride for a good many years. Returning to the school, for a visit in future years, this is one of the ties that will make them feel at home. They can point with pride and say "There's our gift."

This year, a flagpole and a tree. Both are proud and enduring gifts. A flagpole, to display with pride the symbol of our country. A tree, that will grow and spread, and add beauty to the grounds. Perhaps the first of a row of trees to shelter the athletic field, to add beauty and shade to the landscape.

A symbol of patriotism, and a tree to add to the beauty of the country. What more could we ask of our young people?

Draft Inequities

Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara has suggested that the answer to all the inequities in the present Selective Service system is to draft all young people, both men and women, for two years.

They would not all be required to serve in the military, of course. Some could serve in the Peace Corps, or like organizations.

This seems like pretty strong medicine, unless Mr. McNamara is looking forward to a future when the U.S. will be at war constantly.

Drafting young women seems to us the quickest way to dissolution of our nation by striking at the very roots of the nation—the home. The men who have fought valiantly in every war, the good soldiers, have fought to protect their women and children, their homes. Do we want to leave them nothing to fight for but ideology? To defend nothing but our system of government?

The root of the greatest controversy in the draft law is the college deferment plan. The theory behind deferring the high-ranking student, particularly the student of science or medicine, is that we need our scientists, our doctors, our "brains", more than we need the average man.

Do we?

Who can say who best serves his country, the scientist, the doctor, the farmer, the laboring man? Did the discovery of the method of splitting the atom do the world more good than a crop of corn, or the building of a sewer? Does the mere study of science make a man of particular value to his country?

There is no perfect way to decide who shall die, or risk death, in the service of his country, and who shall stay at home. If deferment to attend college is at the root of the inequity, let's look for a different method of deferment, or throw it out. Let's not go overboard by insisting that every young person in the country shall suffer equally simply for the sake of suffering.

Dear Editor:

What has happened to our "so-called" "good" Americans? I see many of them have a strong arm outstretched when a Government hand-out is in store, but the elbows are too weak to hold the arm up to salute Old Glory in the Memorial Day parade.

The Old Scouter Says

The Good Turn idea has been one of the prime concepts of Scouting. On becoming a Scout a boy promises to "Help other people at all times." The Scout slogan reminds him to "Do a good turn daily." One of the points of the Scout Law specifies that "A Scout is helpful." He must do at least one Good Turn to somebody every day.

The Boy Scout Handbook spells out what is meant by a Good Turn. It is on extra act—not just something you do because it is good manners or it is expected of you. The Good Turn habit serves to help a boy become conscious of the people around him and to notice their needs. It influences his thinking and his actions as he gropes his way to manhood.

The May Scout Leaders' Roundtable was held in Antioch May 18. The meeting was held at the Methodist Church—sponsors of Troop 91. All of our local units were well represented. The meeting was opened by Pack 86 of Channel Lake and Pack 192 served refreshments afterwards. Pack 192 also received the award for having the most members of a unit present.

The Northwest District outdoor training program was held recently at Camp Crown and those present were blessed with the most beautiful weather of any weekend so far this spring. Fourteen men from throughout the District took part in this training experience, based on the outdoor skills of second and first class Scout requirements.

New officers for the North Shore Area Council were installed at the Council Annual meeting on May 11. Installed as president for the coming year was Archibald McClure of Kenilworth. Harold Sandberg of Mundelein was installed as Chairman of the Northwest District.

RECOLLECTIONS: May 1947—George Swenson passed Tenderfoot, Troop 91. See Ya Next Week.

THE OLD SCOUTER

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

Growing interest among Lake County attorneys in the two Associate Judge posts to be filled in the November election could spark some interest in Republican precinct committeemen post races and lead to a last minute surge of interest in the June 14 primary.

Latest to join the growing list of judicial aspirants is Lloyd Van Deusen, of Waukegan, a member of the politically potent law firm of Hall, Meyer, Fisher, Van Deusen, Holmberg & Snook. The Republican candidates for Judge will be picked at a judicial convention in August after the GOP committeemen select a Chairman of the Lake County Republican Central Committee.

Delegates to the judicial convention are chosen from the ranks of the committeemen usually, and are picked by the central committee chairman.

It, therefore, behooves judicial candidates to enlist the support of a substantial number of committeemen and to take an active, if non-political, hand in the election of the county chairman.

Candidates for precinct committeemen are already being wooed by judge candidates and those who promise to support the bid of a candidate for judge can count on some support from the candidate.

This early skirmishing can have an effect on the contest for the Republican nomination for County Treasurer since a victory for Robert J. Milton would almost certainly mean his reelection as Central Committee Chairman.

Judicial candidates who foresee opposition from Milton or who are leery of his delegate choices must of necessity work to defeat him in the primary which would sound his death knell as chairman as well.

So if you get a letter from an attorney extolling the virtues of a precinct committeeman candidate in your area you can rest assured that you are also casting a vote for the attorney in the judicial convention.

Which is closer than you came to getting a vote in the convention at which the GOP slated candidates for the county offices in the June primary.

Recent intimations that State Senator Robert Coulson is being eyed as a possible candidate for Lieutenant Governor are not really far-fetched since the Waukegan banker-educator-writer-legislator has gained considerable stature since moving from the hilly burly of the House of Representatives to the serenity of the State Senate.

Sen. Coulson's name is well-known throughout the state as a result of newspaper columns he has written, appearances on television, and as a member of numerous state commissions.

A GOP ticket in 1968 topped by John Henry Altfor for Governor and Sen. Coulson for Lieutenant Governor would provide fine balance and substantial voter appeal.

There has been considerable speculation about the future plans of Temple Smith, wealthy industrialist with extensive real estate holdings in Newport, Antioch, and Lake Villa Townships.

Smith has sought to silence speculation with reports he plans to develop the state's finest race horse breeding farm.

There has also been a suggestion that Smith plans to build a race track in the heart of Lake County's horse farm area.

One knowledgeable area resident who knows Smith well told this reporter Smith plans a huge sports-commercial-industrial complex patterned on fabulous Oak Brook near Hinsdale.

Oak Brook abounds with polo fields, horse show rings, steeplechase courses, golf and tennis facilities, a shopping center, and several industrial research facilities among other activities.

Paul Butler, who created the Hinsdale community, is close to Temple Smith and toured the 3,000 plus acres reportedly owned by Smith.

It would seem that Lake County should be able to cope with a development of this nature if other areas can.

The open support of Robert H. (Mickey) Babcox in his bid for the County Clerk's nomination by former County Board Chairman Emmett Moroney, of Highland Park, should enhance the former Coroner's chances in an area of the county where he has not been too strong in the past. Moroney is still highly regarded and retains considerable political clout in the North Shore area so his support of Babcox could be a key factor in this race.

Babcox also got a boost in Cuba Township when the SHOWER DILEMMA: What would you select as a shower gift for Luc Johnson, if you were one of the Waukegan housewives invited to the shower for the President's daughter?

What do you buy for the daughter of the President of the U.S.?

CIVIC PRIDE: The bulletin board purchased by the sale of Golden Anniversary yearbooks at Antioch High School is up on the athletic field. As of now, it's not quite completed, though it may be by the time you read this.

The board will read Antioch Community High School, Home of the Sequoias, and beneath that a place to list coming events. It faces Rte. 173 and is an attractive addition to the athletic field.

If you haven't visited the High School's athletic field recently, you should. It's something for the town to be proud of. The track and the baseball diamond, incidentally, are the envy of a good many schools.

THEY GET YOUNGER EVERY YEAR: In one of the display cases in the corridor at Antioch High School is a collection of pictures of members of the Class of '66 in their younger days. Much younger.

One group is of the students when they were very small, perhaps five or six years old. The other, their freshman pictures.

Comment of one of the graduating class as she looked at the freshman pictures: "Oh, my goodness, they look so YOUNG!"

AND THIS, TOO, SHALL PASS AWAY: It seems only a short time ago that we were "beefing" about the well-nigh impossible (it seemed) task of learning to dial anywhere from seven to nine numbers when we wanted to phone someone. Now that we've learned to cope with the problem, it seems that the phone company may take care of the whole thing.

Now being tried in a couple of cities is a phone that "remembers" your most-used numbers. You decide which of your most-used numbers you want on 1, 2, etc. The phone "remembers" them. You dial 1 (or whatever number you want) and

Petty Recommends Approval Of Emmons Referendum

Following is a letter from Dr. W. C. Petty to members of the Emmons School Board concerning the upcoming referendum in that school district:

Mr. Richard Major, Clerk Board of Directors, Dist. 33
Dear Mr. Major:

I have examined the revision of your proposed plan for an addition to your school. I find that you have made changes in keeping with my recommendations and in accordance with your own good judgment. This addition should give your school ample facilities far into the future. The brochure which the board distributed seems to give a rather accurate projection of needs.

The enrollment in your school will soon necessitate a teacher for each grade, and I believe that when an elementary school reaches this point in its growth it can offer a program comparable to that in a much larger school. In a community of the size which comprises your school district, the people are able to participate in the common interests and needs of all their families. I have observed in the Emmons School District a sprightly and co-operative community spirit.

The families are agreeably acquainted, and the boys and girls in the school enjoy one another in every type of activity.

Time was when the smaller school could not have the benefits of art, music, crafts, and other less academic features, but now the legislature on May 24, 1965, enacted a law permitting school boards to enter into joint agreements not only for the training of handicapped children but also in the establishment of any type of program which a larger school might establish individually. This new legislation opens the door for a fine cooperative program among districts.

which will benefit even many of the larger districts.

The Emmons School will have, after the proposed addition, sufficient room in some part of the building for a health room, a special education room, and a complete hot lunch program.

The new multipurpose room will enhance the opportunity for school plays and all types of dramatics. In my opinion it can carry on community activities and also observe special programs offered by the pupils.

With full knowledge of all aspects of Emmons School District No. 33 not only in its educational program and ambitions but also in its splendid community life, I am glad to recommend that the voters of the district approve the propositions which the board will soon place before them.

Sincerely yours,

Walls Sets New Shot-Put Record

The Antioch track squad continued to be the Sequoits' winningest athletic team Saturday when they won their second consecutive conference track title. The Sequoits' thin clads piled up 67 points, 18 more than their nearest competitor, Lake Forest, in the meet held at Antioch.

Tyrone Walls was the standout for the Sequoits, placing first in two events. Walls set a new conference record, the only one of the meet, in the shot put with a toss of 55' 4 1/2", breaking the old mark set last year by Bob Flood, also of Antioch. Flood's mark was 52' 0 1/2".

Later in the day Walls won first in the 120 yard high hurdles running the distance in 15.6.

A big surprise in the meet was Glen Oftedahl's first place finish in the high jump. Oftedahl won with a leap of 5' 10" and beat his favored teammate Bob Schenk in the event.

Bill Sheldon was also a standout for the Sequoits as he placed 5th in the 100 yard dash, fourth in the 220, and 2nd in the broad jump. Wayne Hansen was the other first place finisher for the Sequoits, taking the Conference discus title with a throw of 138' 10 1/4".

The teams and their points in the order of their finish were Antioch 67, Lake Forest 49, Grayslake 31, Wauconda 31, Lake Zurich 20, Grant 18, Round Lake 7, and Warren 1.

Sequoits Place 3rd in Frosh-Soph Meet

Antioch's Frosh-Soph unit placed 3rd behind Wauconda and Round Lake in their half of Saturday's meet. The Sequoits' 880 relay team was the only winning effort for Antioch. Paul Yuska, stand-out sprinter for the Sequoits, took 2nd in the 100 yard dash and 3rd in the 220. Dave Camp also placed in these two events with a 5th and a 4th respectively.

S. Loehendorf of Wauconda was the outstanding individual in the meet as he picked up 22 points and led Wauconda to their victory. Loehendorf won first in three events, the 100 yard dash, the 440 and the 220. He also placed 2nd in the long jump.

Five Flips Thrill Chilly Crowd At Speedway

Veteran Dan Kalous called upon sixteen years of auto racing experience to outlast the late model feature field at the Waukegan Speedway Saturday night.

The chilly crowd was thrilled by five separate roll-over accidents and by five different feature event leaders. Jim Cossman captured the semi-feature, while Dennis Burgan, Al Hagerty, Ray Dixon, Jim Pasley, Mel Dorland, and Ron Justen all came through with wins in preliminary events.

Al Gutche turned turtle after a tangle with Tom Ketchum during a semi-feature mix-up on the back stretch. Later in the same event, Tobie Aaron and Mike Millmore tangled with Aaron doing a flip. Jim Cossman came all of the way from the rear to win this event which was cut short to four laps when second running Mike Wolf left a rear axle and wheel in the fourth turn.

Jim Nuttingham's Ford station wagon took the demolition derby after stopping William Remter who earlier flipped but continued unharmd. Earl Hogan and Bob Goff also tipped over in this wild, crowd-pleasing event. No drivers were injured even with all of this spectacular action.

REIMERS WINS SUNDAY 50-LAPPER

Defending champion, John Reimer, showed the form that carried him to the three championships at the Waukegan Speedway as he outdistanced Whitey Harris by three car-lengths at the end of 50 laps in the Memorial Day modified stock car feature Sunday night. Defending late model champion, Dennis Burgan also returned to form as he captured the 20-lap feature in that division. For both defending champions, it was their first feature win in a month and a half of competition in the 1966 season at Waukegan.

Install NICC Officers

Officers of the Northern Illinois Conservation Club were installed at a dinner meeting at the Club House at Channel Lake Wednesday night, May 25.

Richard Waters was re-installed for another term as president; William Brook, vice president; Howard Panier, treasurer, and Mary Chase, secretary.

President Waters called for a vote of thanks to Al Moore, who did much of the carpenter work on the clubhouse. Starting as a neglected barn, the interior of the building has been paneled and a new beamed ceiling installed. President Waters called for volunteers for the "Take A Boy Fishing" Day. The Club plans to take a group of boys fishing June 5. One man will be assigned to each boy. So far, arrangements have been made to treat ten boys from the Baptist Children's Home to a day of fishing, and Elmer Meierdick reported that there was a possibility that about ten more would take advantage of the offer. Lunch for the fishermen will be provided by Boy Scout Troop 86, sponsored by the Northern Illinois Conservation Club.

The late model feature proved to be another thriller as four drivers took turns at leading the twenty lap event. As Burgan opened up a comfortable lead, a real heated battle developed for second position. As the field took Frank Pinter's checkered flag, Jones, Norm Zenko, Jack Ester, Jim Cossman, Harold Gutche and Pop Kline were all bumper-to-bumper in that order, trailing Burgan's Plymouth Valiant.

Accidents spiced the entire program as the events had to be stopped nine times because of mishaps. Three separate homestretch pile-ups eliminated five late models in their first heat race event. Wayne Morgan flipped in the third during the second late model heat to bring the fans to their feet.

Homer Ansell won the semi-feature, while Ron Bergsma, Fran Ansell and Jim Sullivan battled it out for second. For Bergsma, it was his first appearance since his hair-raising series of flips just one week before at Waukegan.

FTA Puts In Busy Year

The Future Teachers of America, a new organization at Antioch High School this year, has turned out to be one of the most active groups in the school.

The FTA enrolled 78 students as members to start with, of which 60 remained active throughout the year. They then organized their new club, elected officers, securing a charter, etc. The group decided on their aims as a club, laid out projects, arranged for informative programs and attended two workshop meetings.

Projects carried out by the FTA in the course of the last school year include: they conducted National Education Week, sponsored Future Visitation Day and Teaching Career Day, and provided 17 Future Teachers to work with slow students throughout the year.

In addition, they helped the Moose Club pack Toys for Tots at Christmas; conducted a Scout Hike and party for Antioch Cub Scouts; sponsored a Halloween party for the children at the Baptist Children's Home, and sent cookies to the Red Cross for the USO. Other projects were to prepare several baskets for Christmas delivery, sent Christmas cards to St. Vincent's orphanage and kept a scrapbook of their own activities.

The FTA financed all this by supervising the cloakroom after games, supervising a dance, sponsoring a spaghetti dinner and conducting a bake sale.

Officers elected for the 1966-67 school year are: president, Candy Meyer; vice president, Marge Madsen; secretary, Pat Denman; treasurer, Lark Hawkins; historian, Colleen Gross; editor, Al Murphy; parliamentarian, Gail Gibbons; program chairman, Marge Madsen; service chairman, Kathi Gross; social chairman, Wendy Lindblad; finance chairman, Jeannine Dow; publicity chairman, Gary Strahan and membership chairman, Kay Kuechenmeister.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Spiritual causation—and spiritual reality will be explored in a Bible Lesson-Sermon on "God the Only Cause and Creator" at Christian Science church services this Sunday.

Responsive reading from Psalms will begin with these verses: "The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works." "The Lord is high unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth."

Related passages to be considered from the Christian Science textbook include these lines: "When mortal man blends his thoughts of existence with the spiritual and works only as God works, he will no longer grope in the dark and cling to earth because he has not tasted heaven. . . . The age seems ready to approach this subject, to ponder somewhat the supremacy of Spirit, and at least to touch the hem of Truth's garment." MOUTH BREATHING MAY HARM CHILD'S HEALTH

QUESTION: Can the habit of breathing through the mouth harm a child's physical health, a reader asks.

ANSWER: It surely can. A young "mouth breather" will probably suffer more upper respiratory infections, more colds and may even encounter serious lung infections.

Why? Because the air he breathes enters his lungs in the same condition it enters the mouth—DRY, DIRTY and COLD.

If he inhales correctly, the dry air could be humidified by the moisture inside the nose. . . . dirt would be filtered out by the nasal hairs. . . . and warmed by the blood vessels inside the nose.

QUESTION: Can the mouth breathing habit cause dental problems too?

ANSWER: Yes. As a matter of fact, it causes numerous dental problems.

Since the air is not humidified, it can dry out a child's gum tissues, causing them to become inflamed and swollen. And, since the foreign matter (dust and dirt) in the air is not filtered, it often collect about the teeth resulting in a unique type of tooth decay.

What's worse, since a young mouth breather continually holds his mouth open, his upper front teeth are no longer supported by his tongue and lower lip. The result? The front teeth gradually move toward the inside of his mouth. Should this change in the position of the teeth (known as malocclusion) take place, the child may eventually require the assistance of an orthodontist (dentist who specializes in straightening teeth).

MOOSE TOPICS

By Lillian Birdsell
Evelyn Miller, senior regent of the Antioch Moose Lodge, welcomed about 60 co-workers at the honorary dinner which was held at the Lodge, Thursday evening, May 26. Treasurer Rose Roth proposed a toast to the senior regent, and chaplain Lil Birdsell said the grace before the meal.

The presentation of the honors was next and a golden spoon, representing the golden anniversary of Mooseheart, was given to the following co-workers for having a record of perfect attendance: Doris John, Catherine Kloth, Gladys Schroeder, Gerry Mark, Rosemary Petersen and Jerri Polson.

Co-workers sponsoring two or more regular candidates as members were the following: Ellen Reckie, Barbara Sapiega. They also received a golden spoon.

A Mooseheart charm bracelet was presented to the Queen of Sponsors, who was Lillian Birdsell. A gift was also given to each officer, appointed officer, chairman, escort and guide. Special thanks was given to the members of the Loyal Order of Moose who prepared the meal and served it.

Membership chairman Leslie Hitter presented gifts to co-workers who attended four consecutive meetings. Harriet Greve was the recipient of a one year paid dues card, Jerri Polson, six months and Estelle Gatch received one for three months.

What if a home is plagued by friction — by family dissension or irritation — caused by differences of opinion or temperament? Hear this inspiring program on how one person turning to God can bring peace and happiness to the home, and make people enjoy living there.

later in life.

QUESTION: Are some children more likely to breathe through their mouth than others?

ANSWER: That depends. If a child has a narrow face, for example, he will probably have narrow airways. These are easily closed off by minor colds, forcing him to breathe through his mouth. And, since minor colds occur so frequently, the temporary relief afforded by mouth breathing could become a habit.

If your child has an enlarged adenoid or tonsil (tissue which normally grows to 10 years of age and then diminishes in size) he may also have blocked airways. So, until he outgrows the enlarged adenoid or tonsil, he too may develop the mouth breathing habit.

If you KNOW your child is a mouth breather, don't overlook it. Your doctor or dentist can easily diagnose and help correct his condition before it harms his physical and dental health.

TICKS ARE BACK

Several hundred species of mites attack Illinois birds, reptiles and mammals. Less than a dozen species attack man. The female wood tick usually gets a blood meal from a mammal, lay their eggs, and die. They are nearly all gone by late July.

Some species of ticks can cause Rocky Mountain fever; others cause paralysis of animals, such as raccoons, cattle, moose, buffalo and, rarely, man. Paralysis of human beings from ticks has so far not been reported in Illinois, according to Dr. L. J. Stannard, entomologist of the Illinois Natural History Survey.

The best way to avoid trouble from the tiny pests is to apply one of the insect repellents before going into brushy places.

Lutheran Faith

To have faith is to trust.

Here's an example: In a past generation, Blondin walked across Niagara Falls on a tightrope. One of his friends was once asked if Blondin could carry a man on his back while crossing the Falls.

The friend's answer was yes. But when asked if he would get on Blondin's back and allow Blondin to carry him across the Falls, his answer was no, adding, "I believe Blondin can do it, but I don't trust him."

Lutherans not only believe Jesus Christ can be their Lord, they trust Him—moment by moment—as their Lord.

Civic League Approves Emmons Referendum

The Lake County Civic League has voiced its approval of the referendum being presented to voters of the Emmons School District on June 4.

Voters in the Emmons Grade School District 33 will be voting on two proposals: to approve a 21c raise in the educational tax rate, and approval of a $195,000 bond issue.

The Civic League says, "The schools committee of the Lake County Civic League has made a study of these proposals and believes they embody a prudent use of taxpayers' money. The Civic League recommends that its members in District 33 vote 'yes' in the referendum."

The plight of the Emmons School, "is typical of what is happening throughout Lake County. A high-class residential development has brought scores of good families with children into an area which has no industry to share the tax load, and the Civic League committee agrees with the school board's projection of larger numbers of pupils to come.

"Emmons school, with 135 pupils, not only is reaching the limit of its capacity, but it has the further handicap of having to squeeze eight grades into its five classrooms. The proposed addition would allow a separate room and teacher for each grade. The project also includes a large multi-purpose room which will serve for group assemblies, physical education and community use for adult organizations. The estimated cost is within the limit set by the Civic League's yardsticks for cost per square foot and cost per pupil."

The 21c will raise the educational tax rate at Emmons School from 82c to $1.03. The polls at Emmons will open at 12 noon and close at 7 p.m.

Troop 86

Boy Scouts of Troop 86 at Channel Lake spent the Memorial Day weekend on a campout at Indian Trails Camp Ground near Pardeeville, Wis.

The boys fished, cooked their own meals over open fires and some worked on merit badges. The boys were taken on the trip by Elmer Meierdick, NCC Scout chairman. Meierdick's brother owns and operates the Indian Trails Camp Ground.

In addition to Meierdick and his family, they were accompanied by Scoutmaster Frank Bruchsalter and Assistant Scoutmaster John Richard.

The group left Antioch Friday night and returned Monday afternoon.

All of us need to be shaken up occasionally—by a friendly hand.

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClary

Senator Dirksen may be a wounded warrior, but he is not retreating from the combat zone in any sense of the word. Indeed, he is girding for a new and perhaps the greatest fight of his career—a battle to guarantee the right to permit prayers and reading of the Bible in public schools. This guarantee is embodied in a simple one-paragraph Constitutional amendment (S. J. Res. 148).

The entire controversy arises out of various decisions of the United States Supreme Court in 1962. For instance, in the case of Engel vs. Vitale, the Court held that the prescribed recitation (from which students could be excused) of a 22-word prayer composed by the New York Board of Regents violated the First Amendment to the Federal Constitution. This amendment provides that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof." The Court held that, under the 14th Amendment, this prohibition applied not only to the Congress, but also to the State Governments. Later decisions held that even Bible readings selected by the students themselves contravened these Constitutional proscriptions.

Many members of Congress and a large segment of our citizens have considered these Supreme Court decisions to be inimical to our American way of life. Parents, teachers, and many church leaders—seeking to expand the religious life of our young people and to enhance their morals—consider that brief, daily interludes for prayer would benefit materially this and future generations.

According to polls which have been taken, more than 81 per cent of the people disagree with the Supreme Court's decisions. A few weeks ago, more than 50,000 original letters came to Senator Dirksen's desk in protest of the Supreme Court's pronouncement against public-school prayers. Senator Dirksen has vowed to lead the fight of the millions of Americans who disagree with the Court and want their schools to have the privilege of providing a period in which students may participate in prayer on a voluntary basis.

Senator Dirksen emphasizes that the Resolution he is sponsoring is not in disrespect to the Court—it merely expresses disagreement. As he points out, a Constitutional amendment became necessary to reverse the Supreme Court's decision in the Dred Scott case (which had held that property rights in a slave could be enforced in a state where slavery had been outlawed). Also, in 1913, a Constitutional amendment was ratified permitting the imposition of income taxes—which had previously been held unconstitutional by the Supreme Court. In behalf of the pending legislation, Senator Dirksen declares dramatically, "Give Caesar what he requires, but give God a little also."

More than 160 Members of Congress have joined in this fight. It is the judgment of this Member of Congress that in this, as in many earlier battles, Senator Dirksen will win.

Lack of funds makes everything tempting, and surfeit of funds makes it seem redundant.

Two first graders were standing outside school one morning. "Do you think," asked one, "that thermonuclear projectiles will pierce the heat barrier?" "No," said the second. "Once a force enters the stratosphere..."

Then the bell rang. Said the first: "There goes the bell. Darn it, now we gotta go in and string beads."

Your Social Security

Question: In March I completed a form indicating I wanted to be covered under Medicare. Last week I received a letter from the Waukegan office asking me to complete another application. Was this letter sent in error?

Answer: Due to the March 31 deadline on signing up for Medicare, many individuals completed a "short form" application. This application which required only a yes or no and a signature was designed to protect them from any loss of benefit. However, the form was not a complete application, therefore, additional information plus proof of age is now required.

Question: When I filed my Federal income tax return, should I have paid tax on the social security checks I received in 1965?

Answer: No, social security checks would not be considered taxable income.

Question: I am unable to locate my health insurance card which I received about a month ago. How do I obtain a duplicate?

Answer: If you have lost your card, contact your local social security office and they will help you get another one. Several individuals living in the Lake-McHenry area have made special trips to Chicago in order to request another card; however, your local office will handle this matter for you.

Question: I understand that any earnings I have after signing up for social security will not be credited toward my monthly benefit. Is this true?

Answer: No, your additional earnings will now be added automatically to your account and refigured into your benefit.

Question: My husband died two years ago. Since I was 62 at the time, I began to receive widow's social security payments each month. If I should remarry would my monthly benefits stop?

Answer: Your remarriage would not stop the pay-

A&P what every new bride should know!

Let's see!

His shirts...starch or no starch?

His eggs...sunnyside up or over lightly?

His coffee...a bit on the strong side?

His steak...medium-rare or rare-rare?

His favorite pie...apple or cherry?

Knowing these things is important.

Knowing this is important, too: A&P is a store you can trust.

Brides have been doing it for over a century.

As a matter of fact, nobody has ever had more brides walk down their aisle than A&P.

We think it's important for brides,

new or old, to find a store they can trust;

to know that everything they buy is totally guaranteed.

That's A&P Policy.

No matter who makes it, if A&P sells it, A&P guarantees it.

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P? It's one of many.
